Counsel:

The attached is what was produced to us. I'm assuming that the telephone numbers being redacted was in error. If not, please explain the basis. The telephone number is what our expert analyzes to determine if it was cellular at the time it was called.

We're working on deposition dates for our client, but we first need to address this discovery, which has been owed to us for a long time.

Regards,

Following up here again. We already conducted the telephonic meet and confer, so if we don't have a supplement this week, we'll move to compel and seek the appropriate Order for non-production.
